Coaches and Staff

#12 Ernie Whitt- Manager (Clinton Township, MI)

Ernie Whitt joins Baseball Canada's national teams program for the ninth time as he returns to the post he last held in 2009 for the World Cup where he led Canada to a Bronze Medal. He began his managerial tenure with Baseball Canada when he managed Team Canada at the 1999 Pan-American Games in Winnipeg, guiding the club to a bronze medal with a 6-1 win over Mexico.

Whitt managed Canada's National Team to a fourth-place finish at the Athens Olympic Games in 2004, finishing just one spot out of the medals after losing a heart-breaker to Cuba in the semi-finals.

A former player who spent 15 seasons in the major leagues, Whitt hit 134 HR and knocked in 534 runs in 1,328 games with Boston, Toronto, Atlanta and Baltimore. Whitt is most fondly remembered as a Blue Jay, having been selected from Boston in the 1976 expansion draft and playing 12 seasons for Toronto before being dealt to Atlanta Dec. 17, 1989.

#33 Larry Walker- Hitting Coach/First Base Coach (Maple Ridge, BC)

Larry Walker returns to his post as First Base Coach and Hitting Coach for the fourth time with Baseball Canada's national teams program. Walker performed both duties at the 2006 and 2009 World Baseball Classic's and the 2009 World Cup.

Walker, arguably the most celebrated Canadian baseball player of all-time, enjoyed a storied 17-year career in the big leagues. Walker's career began in 1989 with the Montréal Expos where he played until 1994. The following year, Walker began a 10-year run as a member of the Colorado Rockies where he enjoyed his finest seasons which included a National League MVP award in 1997. Walker spent the final two years of his career with the St. Louis Cardinals which saw the Cardinals win a National League title in 2004 and play in the World Series. At the conclusion of the 2005 season, Walker announced his retirement as a player from baseball.

In addition to the 1997 MVP award Walker's accomplishments include 5 All-Star game selections, 7 Gold Glove awards and 3 Silver Slugger awards. Walker was also given the 1998 Lou Marsh award, which is annually awarded to Canada's top athlete.

#36 Denis Boucher- Pitching Coach (Lachine, QC)

Denis Boucher will be returning to his familiar role as Pitching Coach this year. Boucher was also a member of the 2009 World Cup staff and helped Canada win the Bronze Medal. This will be Boucher's ninth appearance as Pitching Coach for the National Team with the first coming in 2003 at the America's Olympic Qualifier in Panama. Boucher spent parts of four seasons with the Toronto Blue Jays, Cleveland Indians and his hometown Montréal Expos. Boucher's Expos debut drew over 40,000 fans to the Olympic Stadium in Montréal and saw 192 members of the media attend. Boucher is one of three Canadians to play for both the Blue Jays and Expos. Boucher is currently a scout for the New York Yankees.

#34 Tim Leiper- Third Base Coach (Altoona, PA)

Tim Leiper also makes his return to the staff as Third Base Coach from the 2009 Bronze Medal Winning World Cup team. No stranger to Baseball Canada, Leiper made his first appearance with Canada's National Team at the 2003 America's Olympic Qualifier in Panama.

A former infielder and outfielder, Leiper played 12 seasons and reached as high as the AAA level. Signed as a free agent by Detroit in 1984, he made his professional debut in 1985 and went on to play for such teams as AAA-Toledo, AAA-Tidewater (now Norfolk) and AAA-Buffalo of the International League. He also played in the Mexican Winter League in 1993 and in the Dominican Republic Winter League in 1995.

In 1996, Leiper made his coaching debut with AA-Binghamton of the Mets organization before getting his first taste of managing with the Vermont Expos in 2000. Leiper's managing career also included two stops at AAA-Ottawa where he managed the club in 2002 and 2004. Leiper spent the 2010 season managing the Jacksonville Suns of the Southern League who are the AA-affiliate of the Florida Marlins.

#10 Greg Hamilton- Coach & Director National Teams (Ottawa, ON)

Greg Hamilton's involvement with Baseball Canada spans nearly two decades. From 1992-1995, Hamilton was the Pitching Coach with the Senior National team before taking over the Junior National Team program in 1996. After a brief hiatus, Hamilton returned to oversee the Junior National program in 1999, a position that he still holds today.

Holding a Bachelor of Arts degree from Princeton University, Hamilton played varsity hockey his freshman year and followed a four-year playing career as a pitcher for the Tigers with a two-year stint as assistant coach at his alma-matter. He also served as the pitching coach of the French National team in 1994 while living in France where he managed the Montpellier Baseball Club, a Senior Division team from 1993-1997.

After moving on to be an assistant coach at the University of Maine (Orono) in 1998, Hamilton was later hired by Baseball Canada to coach the Junior National Team and become the Director of National Teams.

Hamilton has won numerous awards during coaching career including an Ivy League championship in 1991; the French Division 1 championship in 1993 and 1995; bronze medals at the 1993 World University Games, the 1995 Americas Cup Challenge and the World Junior Championship in 1997 and 2006. Hamilton was also a member of the coaching staffs of the Canadian entries at the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens, the 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing and 2006 and 2009 World Baseball Classics.
