

Summary of 2024 MLB Rule Changes for the 2025 Baseball Canada Season

- Amended Rule 2.01 to reflect the updated dimensions of the grass line of the infield dirt in fair territory along the first base line. Not applicable to Baseball Canada.
- Amended Rule 5.09(a)(11) to reflect the updated dimensions governing certain interference calls for throw at first base. Not applicable to Baseball Canada.
- Amended Rule 5.10(g) to reflect that a pitcher who warms up on the field at the start of the inning is required to pitch to at least the first batter of the inning until such batter is put out or reaches first base.
- Amended Rule 5.10(m) to update the number of mound visits each team is allowed through nine innings. Not applicable to Baseball Canada.
- Amended the Penalty for Interference in Rule 6.01(a) to reflect the updated dimensions governing certain interference calls for throws at first base. Not applicable to Baseball Canada.
- Amended Rule 7.01 to clarify the policies surrounding regulation games. Not applicable to Baseball Canada.
- Amended Rule 7.02 to clarify the policies surrounding suspended games. Not applicable to Baseball Canada.
- Amended “A Called Game” in the Definition of Terms to clarify the Office of the Commissioner’s role in terminating play.
- Added “A Postponed Game” to the Definition of Terms.