

The Women in Coaching Program is an initiative by Baseball Canada aimed at empowering female coaches at various stages of their development. The program is divided into three cohorts, each tailored to the participants' experience, training, and future coaching aspirations. This structure allows us to ensure that every coach receives the appropriate level of support and resources.

	COHORT 1	COHORT 2	COHORT 3
SYNCHRONOUS LEADERSHIP SESSIONS Led by notable figures in baseball (topics this year range from How to Turn your Passion for Baseball into Leadership Positions to technical and tactical skills for practice planning).	✓	✓
ASYNCHRONOUS LEADERSHIP SESSIONS Recordings of the leadership sessions mentioned above will be posted on the communication platform			✓
ONE-ON-ONE MENTORSHIP (optional) One-on-one mentorship with elite-level baseball coaches and leaders in girl's and women's baseball.	✓
PEER-MENTORSHIP (optional) Opportunities to network and build relationships within your own cohort.	✓	✓	✓
NCCP MODULES (optional) The following free NCCP (National Coaching Certification Program) modules delivered by female Learning Facilitators: Initiation, Pitching & Catching, Teaching & Learning, Absolutes, Skills, Strategies and Planning. These will each be offered twice.	✓	✓	✓
COMMUNICATION PLATFORM Free platform (Mighty Networks) for resource and idea sharing, as well as connecting with the group.	✓	✓	✓

We understand that each coach's goals and availability may differ, which is why the Women in Coaching Program offers flexible participation options to reduce barriers to entry. On the registration form, you'll have the ability to opt-in for certain perks and sessions that align with your individual goals. To help you make an informed decision, a draft schedule is provided:

The draft schedule can be found here for Cohort 1, here for Cohort 2 and here for Cohort 3.